

February 13, 1946

Dear Mr. Manley.

Received your letter asking me to inform you of my intentions for the coming season and ~~wish~~ to inform you that I do wish to play. I had meant to inform you by mail but in as much as I saw you in the Grand Hotel I thought that our conversation would have sufficed as to what I intended to do.

At any rate this letter makes it definite that I would like to be included on your team roster.

Give my regards to Mrs. Manley and Lee.

Sincerely,

Max Manning.